

Not only horror but also humor reigned at the Key Largo Casino for Halloween

Sean Metcalf, Manager of the Key Largo Casino was most definitely in the Halloween holiday mood as he tried to sink his fangs into the neck of lovely Cleopatra Delia Willems, the casino's sales and market guru. Aruba's coziest casino was the choice for quite a few as the way to spend the holiday evening, listening to great music from super pimp Carlos Olarti and Shasta, the hot pink cowgirl.

Halloween is a fun night when both youngsters and adults let their imagine run free, and costumes for adults often turn to the archly humorous, such as a cigar smoking Sugar Daddy, not only pretty witches and gypsies, which earned the wearer a nod for most original costume.

Key Largo Casino has a homey, club-type ambiance with the attached Blue Marlin Restaurant and an entertainment center around the bar featuring some terrific island performers seven days a week. Many agreed, it was a great way to show off their fabulous Halloween dress!
